

Curriculum Vitae

Christopher A. Napoli, DC, CCN, LDN

Dr. Napoli received his undergraduate degree from Wagner College in New York. He received his Doctor of Chiropractic degree in 1986, from New York Chiropractic College. He went on to study Applied Kinesiology and clinical nutrition on a postgraduate basis, concurrent with opening his private practice on Staten Island in 1987.

He is a diplomate of the American Academy of Pain Management. He has also attained his Board Certification by the Clinical Nutrition Certification Board (www.cncb.org), followed by his licensure in New York State as a Certified Dietitian-Nutritionist.

Dr. Napoli has also attained his diplomate from the American Chiropractic Board of Nutrition. He is a member of the International and American Associations of Clinical Nutritionists and is a member of the board of advisors of the American Cancer Society.

Dr. Napoli is a respected lecturer, author and teacher. He frequently presents nutritional lectures at Staten Island University Hospital, and has been a featured presenter at professional conferences held by the American Cancer Society in Staten Island, as well as providing in-service training for their northeast regional staff. He is a past health consultant to the New York City Retired Transit Police Officers' Association. In addition, Dr. Napoli is a past president of the Staten Island Herb Society and author of the Staten Island Register column, "Nutrition & Wellness."

He currently maintains both a chiropractic and clinical nutrition practice on Staten Island, is president of Kingdom Nutrition, and currently formulates specialized nutritional supplements in cooperation with a number of professional GMP certified supplement manufacturers.

Dr. Napoli currently lives in New Jersey with his beautiful wife and three children.